2 CATHOLIC NEWS / ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 22, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On behalf of Bishop Vann, the Shepherd of our Diocese and the Pastor of Christ Cathedral, I would like to welcome each of you to Christ Cathedral and thank you very much for celebrating your Sunday worship with us!

Today is our World Mission Sunday. Our Holy Father Pope Francis invites all the faithful throughout the world to pray and support the missionaries throughout the world.

The Holy Father says in his message for World Mission Day 2023: "For this year's World Mission Sunday, I have chosen a theme inspired by the story of the disciples on the way to Emmaus, in the Gospel of Luke (cf. 24:13-35): Hearts on fire, feet on the move. Those two disciples were confused and dismayed, but their encounter with Christ in the word and in the breaking of the bread sparked in them the enthusiastic desire to set out again towards Jerusalem and proclaim that the Lord had truly risen. In the Gospel account, we perceive this change in the disciples through a few revealing images: their hearts burned within them as they heard the Scriptures explained by Jesus, their eyes were opened as they recognized him and, ultimately, their feet set out on the way. By meditating on these three images, which reflect the journey of all missionary disciples, we can renew our zeal for evangelization in today's world ... All of us can contribute to this missionary movement: with our prayers and activities, with material offerings and the offering of our sufferings, and with our personal witness. The Pontifical Mission Societies are the privileged means of fostering this missionary cooperation on both the spiritual and material levels. For this reason, the collection taken on World Mission Sunday is devoted to the Pontifical Society for the Propagation of the Faith."

Our Bishop Kevin Vann says in his message for World Mission Day 2023: "On Oct. 21 and 22, the Universal Church celebrates World Mission Sunday. Even as we mark our local Congress in celebration of the Eucharistic Revival, this global Eucharistic celebration for the Church's missions is an opportunity to remind our parishioners of their own call to be missionary disciples. We assist the Holy Father exercise his Petrine obligation to support the Church in the missions by praying for our missionaries and financially supporting their ministry ... The World Mission Sunday collection in the United States supports CNEWA (Catholic Near East Welfare Association) aiding the Oriental Churches in need with 9% of the contributions. It also supports the Pontifical Council on Latin America, that directs 5% of the gifts to aid the poorest jurisdictions in South America and the Caribbean. The balance (86%) supports the Church in those dioceses in Africa and Asia which are designated as mission territories. Last year, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the United States sent over $23 million to the bishops, priests, religious brothers and sisters and lay missionaries who help spread the Gospel in these territories."

As we reflect upon the two messages above, we are reminded that our planets have around 8 billion people but only 2 billion believe in Jesus Christ as their God and Savior, and that as the baptized, we are called to be a missionary in our own capacity. So today, please pray and support the missionaries throughout the world. With your financial support, the Gospel of Jesus may be preached to all people of the world. May each of us be a missionary by being loved and support our World Mission Sunday! May God bless each one of you and your family!

LAST WEEK. The two celebrations of the White Mass honoring all medical doctors and healthcare professionals from the dedicated service of Orange County and the "I AM" Eucharistic Congress experiencing the life that flows from Jesus Christ His existence, encountering Him in the reality of His Presence were superb. Thank you so much everyone for attending and praying with us. See you again next year.

Have a blessed weekend! We look forward to seeing you again next weekend. "God loves you and so do I!"

With gratitude in Christ,
Very Reverend Bao Thai
Rector

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Bishop Kevin Vann Announces the Passing of Bishop Emeritus Tod D. Brown, Third Bishop Of Orange

Bishop Brown will forever be known for his tireless spirit, bearing witness to Christ and spearheading the Crystal Cathedral purchase. He was 86.

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (October 16, 2023) — Bishop Kevin Vann and the Roman Catholic Diocese of Orange community are saddened to announce the passing of Bishop Emeritus Tod David Brown. Bishop Brown died Sunday morning at St. Joseph Hospital after being hospitalized. He was 86. Sustained and heartened by the knowledge of all who had been praying for him, Bishop Brown received the anointing of the sick and the Apostolic Pardon. "With his tireless spirit and witness to Christ, Bishop Brown faithfully served the people of the Diocese of Orange since 1998, when Pope St. John Paul II appointed him bishop and ordinary of our Diocese," said Bishop Vann. "I remember especially his kindness to me when I was a newly ordained priest at the Casa Santa Maria in Rome in the fall of 1981."

"I ask for prayers for the repose of Bishop Brown's soul and for the thanksgiving to God for his many years of ministry and evangelization. Let us pray: Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he and all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen."

A vigil is scheduled for Oct. 29 at 6 p.m. at Holy Family parish in Orange. The funeral Mass will be at 10:30 a.m. Oct. 30 at Christ Cathedral. (The overflow will be held in Arboretum.) Both will be livestreamed.

Bishop Brown, the third bishop of the Diocese of Orange, will be laid to rest in the St. Callistus Chapel and Crypts, which are being constructed beneath Christ Cathedral and are scheduled to be completed in 2024.

Bishop Brown came to Orange in 1998 after serving as bishop of the Diocese of Boise. He was ordained a priest on May 1, 1963, for the Diocese of Monterey-Fresno. Bishop Brown's resignation as bishop of Orange was accepted by Pope Benedict XVI on Sept. 21, 2012, in accordance with Canon Law, which requires all bishops to offer their resignation to the pope upon reaching their 75th birthday. Notable within Bishop Brown's tenure was spearheading the purchase of the Crystal Cathedral campus in Garden Grove after its ministry fell into bankruptcy. The sprawling 34-acre property, home to the popular "Hour of Power" broadcast, later became Christ Cathedral following a years-long transformation that culminated with the cathedral's solemn dedication on July 17, 2019. Aiding in the sale, which was completed in 2012, was that Bishop Brown had a good relationship with Crystal Cathedral founder Dr. Robert Schuller, who once told a priest that "Bishop Brown is my bishop." When Dr. Schuller addressed the Catholic priests in 2012 after the sale, the Protestant televangelist referred to the Catholic Church as "my mother church," and admitted that he wanted his campus to go to the Catholic Church, a steward of art and architecture. "I trust it to you. It's yours ... this could be a global place for dynamic energy to be generated," Dr. Schuller said. "And that's what the church needs today and tomorrow — dynamic creative energy. If it's to be found anywhere, it's got to be in you. You are the church. I know that, respect that, honor that, and thank you for taking charge of a physical facility that can be used for the glory of God." In 2021, Bishop Brown told Orange County Catholic that "Christ Cathedral will be here for generations to come, and it will become — even more than it is now — the spiritual home of our Catholic Church in Orange County and a religious center for people of all faiths. I think it will become one of the primary Catholic cathedrals in the country."

During Bishop Brown's tenure — where he was regarded as a collaborative leader who hired women to key Diocesan leadership positions — Orange County parishes saw boosted Mass attendance and an increasingly diverse Catholic population. With the intent of ensuring that Orange's leaders reflected their communities, in the late 1990s, Bishop Brown requested the installation of a Hispanic bishop. This led to then-Monsignor Jaime Soto, a Stanton native, becoming an auxiliary bishop for Orange in 2000 and one of the nation's few Hispanic bishops at the time. Bishop Brown later requested a Vietnamese bishop, which led to the appointment in 2003 of Dominic Dinh Mai Luong, then serving in New Orleans, becoming the first Vietnamese-American bishop in the U.S. Bishop Brown was also regarded for helping guide the Diocese of Orange through the sex abuse crisis of the early 2000s. In 2005, he was the first bishop in California to settle sex abuse claims, agreeing to pay $100 million to 90 victims and publicly releasing files on clergy abuse allegations. At the time, it was the largest abuse settlement payout in the U.S. Catholic Church. Bishop Brown also agreed to personally apologize to each of the victims. His leadership put in place a series of policies and procedures to ensure parishes and schools remain safe for both children and adults. The new protections included requiring stringent and comprehensive background checks for all clergy and lay employees, mandating safe environment training, creating a diocesan office dedicated to protecting children, strengthening abuse reporting education at schools and parishes, and establishing an independent Oversight Review Board comprised of volunteers to consider all allegations of sexual abuse of a minor presented against clergy or staff. Many of the policies in place in the Diocese of Orange for more than two decades have been replicated at other organizations and institutions across the U.S. "I hope that what we have done — the changes we have made in our policies and our personnel practices — will guarantee that, as much as is humanly possible, these things will never happen again," Bishop Brown said in 2005.
