A MESSAGE FROM OUR RECTOR

Sunday of the Most Holy Trinity – May 26, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With joy and respect, I welcome each and every one of you to Christ Cathedral on behalf of Bishop Kevin Vann, who leads our Diocese with wisdom and care. Your presence here today is deeply appreciated and speaks volumes about your strong faith and your desire to come together as a community to celebrate our shared beliefs.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY. Today's readings, though they don't provide a detailed exposition of the doctrine of the Blessed Trinity, beautifully illustrate the active presence and love of God in our lives. In the First Reading, we see God's intimate involvement with the world right from the beginning. It's a powerful reminder of His Fatherly care, a care that is constant and nurturing. This example of divine fatherhood is not just something to admire from a distance; it's a call for us to imitate in our own lives. The Second Reading brings into focus the role of the Holy Spirit. St. Paul speaks to us about how the Spirit makes us true children of God the Father. Through the Spirit, we are not just followers; we are adopted into the very family of God, becoming brothers and sisters of Jesus, the Son. This is a profound truth that should fill us with both awe and a deep sense of belonging. The Holy Spirit works within us, transforming us and binding us together as a community of faith. And in the Gospel, we witness an essential moment: Jesus' final appearance to His apostles before ascending into heaven. Here, He commissions them—and by extension, all of us—to go forth and make disciples of all nations. His command to baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, explicitly invokes the Trinity, the central mystery of our faith. It's a mission that calls us to share the love and truth of God with the world, to bring others into this divine family. So, while the readings may not spell out the doctrine of the Trinity in a systematic way, they vividly show us how the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are at work in our lives and in the history of salvation. After Communion, let's take a moment to talk with Jesus in the Eucharist, especially let us take these messages to heart, recognizing the presence of our Triune God in every aspect of our lives, and striving to live out this divine example in our daily actions. We are invited to reflect God's care and compassion in our interactions, to be instruments of His love in the world.

MARIAN GARDENS MASS AND BLESSING ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 29, 2024, AT 5:15 PM. This sacred space, adorned with flowers and graced by Mary's gentle spirit, serves as a reminder of her unwavering intercession and boundless love for all her children. In the tranquil beauty of this garden, we are invited to pause, reflect, and offer our prayers to our dear Blessed Virgin Mary. Just as the flowers bloom under her watchful gaze, so too do our hearts blossom with faith and hope in her maternal care. As we contemplate the blessings of our Marian Gardens, let us also turn our hearts towards the upcoming conference of Marian Days in July 12 & 13, 2024. This gathering of faithful, united in devotion to the Blessed Mother, offers us an opportunity to deepen our connection with her and with one another and ultimately with her son our Lord Jesus Christ. Let us cherish the gift of our Marian Gardens and eagerly anticipate the blessings that await us at the annual Marian Days conference in July. Together, let us continue to honor our dear Mother Mary, whose love knows no bounds, and together, let us continue with her to "magnify the Lord and rejoice in God my Savior" (Luke 1:46). Please join us at the outdoor Mass at the Shrine. For more information, please call 714-282-4290 or info@ollvfoundation.org.

To all of Christ Cathedral and beyond, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to each one of you for your unwavering prayers, precious time, remarkable talents, generous contributions, and boundless love and support for our beloved Cathedral. Your dedication means the world to us. We eagerly anticipate welcoming you back next Sunday as we gather once again in fellowship and worship. May the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Joseph, and Saint Callistus intercede for you and your loved ones, bringing abundant blessings throughout this Easter season and beyond. "God loves you and so do I" (Rev. Dr. Robert H. Schuller).

With love and joy in Christ,
Very Reverend Bao Thai
Rector
