A MESSAGE FROM OUR RECTOR

Sunday of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – June 02, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the grace and love of our Lord, I extend a heartfelt welcome to each of you to Christ Cathedral. On behalf of Bishop Kevin Vann, who shepherds our Diocese with profound wisdom and compassionate care, I express our deep appreciation for your presence here today. Your attendance is a testament to your steadfast faith and your commitment to our community, united in the celebration of our shared beliefs. May the Lord bless our worship and fill our hearts with His boundless joy and peace.

HAPPY SOLEMNITY OF THE CORPUS CHRISTI - THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF JESUS CHRIST. Today we're headfirst into a really important part of our faith: the Holy Eucharist. You might have heard it called a sacramental banquet and a sacrificial offering. But what does that really mean? First, let's talk about the Eucharist as a sacrament. Think of it like this: a sacrament is a visible sign that gives us God's grace and life. So, when we participate in the Eucharist, we're not just doing a ritual. We're actually receiving God's grace in a real and tangible way. It's also like a special meal that nourishes our souls, giving us the spiritual strength we need. Now, on to the idea of sacrifice. The Eucharistic celebration is more than just a meal; it's the sacrifice of Jesus on Calvary. This isn't a bloody sacrifice, but it's a powerful one because it connects us directly to Jesus' death and resurrection. During Mass, when we offer Jesus' sacrifice to God the Father, we're seeking forgiveness for our sins, and we use signs and symbols to make this connection. Finally, let's talk about what it means to be Christ-bearers and conveyers. When we receive Holy Communion, we're taking in more than just a consecrated host. We're indeed taking in Christ himself. Just like Mary carried Jesus, we're carrying Him within us. This means we have a responsibility to bring Christ to others, whether it's at home, school, or work. We do this through acts of love, mercy, forgiveness, and humble, sacrificial service. After Holy Communion, let's take a moment to talk with Jesus in the Eucharist, especially let us remind of ourselves that every time we receive the Eucharist, we're becoming a bearer of Christ, with the mission to share His love with the world.

PRIESTS' ANNUAL RETREAT. All diocesan Bishops and Priests will be at our Annual Retreat this week from Monday 6/3 to Friday 6/7. Please keep us in your prayers as we continue to be holy, humble and zealous servants for our Lord, His people and His Church. We still have our regular daily Masses from Monday to Friday as usual.

THE ORDINATION OF THE TWO NEW PRIESTS. Deacon Greg Walgenbach, the first married priest through the Pastoral Provision, and Deacon Cole Buzon, from our Christ Cathedral parish and the first Filipino American in the Diocese. Their ordination will be at Christ Cathedral this coming Saturday 6/8 at 10:00 am. All are invited. Please pray for them and for the increase of the Vocations to the priesthood, the diaconate, and the consecrated life

To all the faithful of Christ Cathedral and beyond, I express my heartfelt thanks for your constant prayers, valuable time, incredible talents, generous contributions, and endless love and support for our cherished Cathedral. Your dedication is invaluable to us. As we look forward to welcoming you back next Sunday, with the prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Joseph, and Saint Callistus who constantly intercede on our behalf, let us prepare to gather once more in fellowship and worship. May our Triune God bestow abundant blessings upon you and your loved ones throughout this Ordinary Time season and beyond. Remember always, "God loves you and so do I" (Rev. Dr. Robert H. Schuller).

With blessings in Christ the Eucharist,
Very Reverend Bao Thai
Rector

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Mass of Consecration of

Dalia Zakhary

"To a life of Virginity lived in the world"

JUNE 15 CHRIST
10:30AM CATHEDRAL

The Diocese of Orange is pleased to announce the upcoming consecration of Dalia Zakhary, to the Ordo virginum in the Diocese of Orange.

Dalia will be the first woman to be consecrated in the Diocese of Orange as a consecrated virgin living in the world. All are welcome to join us at Christ Cathedral on this special occasion.

This ancient vocation existed in the early Church and was lived out in the first virgin martyrs, such as St. Cecilia and St. Agnes.

Over time, the growth of monastic orders drew women to live religious life in common, and the vocation of consecrated virgins living in the world became less common.

However, the Second Vatican Council called for a revision of this ancient rite of consecration and Pope St. Paul VI published the revised rite of "Consecration to a Life of Virginity" in 1970.

Since that time, the Catholic Church has enjoyed an increase of vocations to this particular vocation numbering over 5,000 consecrated virgins worldwide.
